TIPS for Attending a Job Fair

Here are some helpful hints to keep in mind when attending a job fair

1. Find out which employers will be attending. (Done!)

2. Dress as if you were going to an actual job interview... because you are.
3. Don't smoke before or during the job fair.
4. Bring your own pen. (Bring 2 just in case one dries up)
5. Bring many copies of your resume if you have one or a copy of your job history in case you need to fill out an application
6. Don't carry too much stuff with you. Carry your resume in a folder or portfolio. It will keep your resume neat and handy

7. Smile when introducing yourself.

8. If you have someone drive you there, send them away and tell them to come back later so they are not pestering you to leave.
9. Do not bring your children, spouse or other relatives along with you; unless they are job-hunting themselves.
10. Bring a "cheat sheet" with all your employment, references and contact information so you can fill out applications on the spot without having to look it up.
11. Speak with as many representatives as possible.
12. Start with the employers that you are least interested in to become comfortable in the Job Fair setting and work the bugs out of your communication skills.
13. Stand near the tables you want to visit, and eavesdrop on the recruiter and the other applicants. You'll never have a better opportunity to prepare for an interview.
14. Know when to leave the booth. Don't ramble on about subjects not related to what you are looking for.
15. Be ready with a 30 second commercial about yourself answering the question "Tell me about yourself".
16. Ask for business cards of the individuals you talk with.
17. Send thank you letters/emails to the representatives you met along with any additional materials you promised to send.
